Donna Lou Emhof

Guests: Eli Hershberger, Russ Dutcher

Minutes of April meeting were approved

. Old Business: Discussion of flashing light signs. Mr. Dutcher reported he has talked to owners of Spikes
. He told them the flashing must cease. The lights are to be turned off when business closes at 10 pm.

The sign at the firehouse is supposed to turn off at 9 pm. He says the school turns their light off at night, no time specified. Mr. Dutcher will see the Zoning Board officers about a variance for these three signs,

New Business: Discussion of a simple subdivision proposed by Mr. Hershberger. A milk station serving the Amish needs two acres to accommodate their business which will be divided from Mr.
Hershberger's property on Dutch Valley Road. A motion to table this proposal until next month pending completed paperwork was approved

. A proposal to move the next Planning Board meeting to June 11 was approved. Sharon will notify the Town Clerk.

Next meeting is Weds. June 11, 2014 7 pm

Meeting adjourned at 9:00 pm.
